

ATRS RFQ Questions and Answers

1. Q: Under RFQ section D. Response Instructions, number 3. Response Form and Format, the RFQ states that: "The response, including the title page and any appendices, should be on standard white or buff 8-1/2" x 11 paper in at least 10-point type, and may not exceed ten (10) pages for each subject matter area." Can you please clarify what ATRS means by "subject matter area" and how that relates to the questions in section E?
A: The response format corresponds to information request #8 in Section E as it applies to the subject matters listed in Section B (securities class action litigation, domestic securities class action monitoring and advice; and asset recovery. The other responses in Section E may be in any other format.
